No part of this document is permitted to be reproduced or distributed for commercial purposes. The following pages are presented for self-educational and research purposes only.

We value your respect and appreciation for the art of penmanship and the hard work that the individuals who originally contributed to this document endured.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "D. Grimes". The signature is written in dark ink and is centered on the page.

The above represents three pages of very elaborately engrossed resolutions in Book Form, and also shows the cover of the book, which was of finest French Levant leather, elegantly hand tooled in gold. A gold monogram was fastened into the cover, adding considerably to its general appearance. The pages of the book were of vellum (calf-skin) and the borders and large initials richly embellished in gold and appropriate colors. We will be glad to show a similar book and many other beautiful specimens to anyone interested.

RIGHTEOUSNESS AND CHARITY.
